

Fletcher Lodge

Dunedin, Otago

Bed and Breakfast and Apartments, Dunedin

Built by Dunedin identity Sir James Fletcher in 1924 to serve as his private residence this historic property offers a rare glimpse of New Zealand's heritage. Stay in the original house or in one of the luxury apartments in the renovated building next door. Outdoor sitting areas and established gardens to enjoy.

The location is excellent, just a short walk from the Dunedin city centre, shops and restaurants or the museum, galleries and railway station.

Further afield is Dunedin's renowned Otago Peninsula and opportunities to view Royal Albatross, sea lions, penguins and seals.

Your hosts are long-time Dunedin residents and enthusiasts and will direct you to the best things to do and places to dine or visit.

Directions

From the north on SH1 you will reach the edge of the city. Keep to the left at this junction and prepare to turn left, keeping hard to the left, you will be in a short part of the one way system on Andersons Bay Road heading towards Princess Street which runs alongside The Oval, a large open green area.

At the next 'T' junction turn right into Princes Street, proceed for about 400 metres to the next set of traffic lights. Do not turn immediately left but keep to the left turning slightly into Manse street. DO NOT GO STRAIGHT AHEAD ON PRINCES STREET.

Look out for the green Fletcher Lodge sign and turn into the driveway.
