Taieri Gorge & Seaside Trains

Dunedin Railways provide scenic and historic train trips into the spectacular Central Otago Hinterland and up the rugged Otago coast north of Dunedin, New Zealand. The train stations along the way are unique Victorian buildings or tiny country town stops. The Taieri Gorge Railway is of the world's great train trips and an excellent day out from Dunedin. You can also use it as a fun way to access the start of the Central Otago Rail Trail and the Alps to Ocean Cycleway.

Taieri Gorge

Departing daily from downtown Dunedin into the Taieri Gorge, this trip travels through some of New Zealand's most beautiful and ever changing scenery which can not be seen from the road! With sightseeing stops, on board café, outside viewing platforms it is the perfect all weather activity and one of the key attractions in Dunedin – not to be missed.

Departs 9:30 & 2:30 | Duration 4 hours return

The Seaside Trains

The Seaside Trains (Oamaru Seaside, Waitaki Seaside, Palmerston Seaside) are fantastic trips along the Otago Coastline. A "must-do" railway trip in New Zealand, not just for train enthusiasts, and is a brilliant, qualmark endorsed all weather entertainment option.

Oamaru Seaside
