

Pen-y-bryn Lodge

Oamaru, North Otago

Luxury Lodge, Oamaru

Historic Pen-y-bryn Lodge is a magnificent sprawling Victorian mansion in the charming historic port town of Oamaru. Splendid living areas, dedicated hosts, locally sourced food and wine make this a unique experience. The lodge affords guests a chance to relive a bygone age of refined elegance, while still enjoying all the modern amenities today's travellers expect.

Oamaru is a nature, history and food lover's mecca. The Blue Penguin colony offers large resident colonies of blue penguins, and fur seals and shags are plentiful along the coast. Pen-y-bryn showcases the vibrant artisan "cuisine scene" of the area, including award-winning local wines, meats, and cheeses, along with lodge-grown fruit and vegetables. Explore North Otago and the wineries of the Waitaki Valley, enjoy fly fishing, day rides on the popular new A2O mountain bike trail from Mt Cook to Oamaru, gliding at Omarama's renowned gliding centre or, in winter, Ohau's ski fields. Just to the north are seldom explored but fascinating Maori cave art sites.

Accommodation

All guests at Pen-y-bryn Lodge enjoy pre-dinner canapés and glass of local wine each evening. Dinner is by prior arrangement and we recommend dining in on your first night, timed to allow a visit to the Oamaru Blue Penguin colony's evening viewing.
