

Molesworth Tour Company

Blenheim, Marlborough

Bike, Wine & Dine Private Tours

Explore Marlborough and the high country splendour of Molesworth Station on a range of one day or multi-day tours. Enjoy the company of friendly local tour guides who will recount the history of New Zealand's largest cattle farm, take you to visit a merino sheep farm, enjoying morning tea in a homestead with the owners. Iconic Molesworth Station (high country farms are called "stations" in New Zealand) was purchased by the New Zealand government in 2005. It continues to be farmed but also allows some public access as well as concessions for a small number of tour companies such as Molesworth Tours who offer exclusive entry to this 180,000 hectare property. Molesworth is New Zealand's biggest farm with endless river valleys and mountains from 900 meters to over 1,554 meters.

Molesworth Tours also offer a range of cycle and bike tours, through the Marlborough vineyards or longer trips through Molesworth Station and further afield. Having guided Molesworth and Marlborough since 1992 they know the people, the places and how to ensure a special and memorable journey for their guests.

Enjoy a great day out cycling from central Blenheim into the Marlborough wine country, and enjoy a delectable lunch in the heart of the wine growing region on this escorted, personal tour.
