Peka Peka Beach, Kapiti Coast

Kapiti Coast accommodation

Located just one hour north of Wellington, nestled in the sand dunes overlooking Peka Peka Beach lies Atahuri. Its secluded beachside location offers guests a unique place in which to stay along with genuine kiwi hospitality. Atahuri was designed by renowned Waiheke Island architect Ron Stevenson, whose brief was to build a luxury lodge that blended with its environment.

Atahuri offers four luxury suites and is the perfect base for discerning travelers looking for privacy and tranquility in a spectacular beach setting. Local, national and international artworks feature throughout the contemporary Retreat. Comfy sofas, bay windows and stunning views, await weary travelers looking to curl up with a good book and glass of wine.

Outside, a sheltered courtyard with views of the Tararua's has a large open fire, BBQ, outdoor furniture and louvre-tech roof enabling guests to eat al fresco in most weather. Walk past the edible garden's guava hedge and passionfruit vines to the curved shaped swimming pool and spa that capture the last of the evening sun. Breathtaking views of the Tasman Sea and Kapiti Island can be seen from the roof top deck – a great spot to watch the sun go down!

From Atahuri guests can visit nearby Kapiti Island, a magnificent pristine bird sanctuary and marine reserve, enjoy a round of golf at one of the 4 courses within a 15 min radius one of which hosted Tiger Woods whilst he was No.1 in the world, visit Southwards Car Museum considered the largest in the southern hemisphere, go for a horse trek along the beach, visit an award winning vineyard and brewery, book a scenic helicopter ride, bike to the numerous art galleries in the area stopping off for a coffee on the way.....

The New Zealand theme continues with meals cooked by your kiwi host, focusing on fresh New Zealand seafood, lamb, fruit and vegetables grown on the property, accompanied by gourmet offerings from the Kapiti Coast.
