Winery Tour Central Otago

The Central Otago wine region is renowned above all for superb pinot noir, but also for its delicate Riesling and Chardonnays and enjoyable Pinot Gris and rose wines. The most experienced Queenstown wine tour company, Appellation Wine Tours will guide you through the vineyards of Gibbston Valley, Bannockburn and Cromwell, sampling both from well-known wineries and small personally managed vineyards, and sampling local artisan food. Groups are kept to an absolute maximum size of twelve adults, ensuring ample time tasting some great wines as well as interacting with your guide and the local vineyard staff and owners. Appellation can also design an exclusive tour to suit just you.

Boutique Wine Tour

An afternoon amongst the boutique vineyards and superb scenery of the Central Otago Wine region. Taste at 4 of the region's vineyards - 2 in the Gibbston Valley and 2 in Bannockburn, enjoy a gourmet platter lunch, bathe in the amazing scenery and learn about the gold history of this diverse region.
