

McCormick House

Picton, Marlborough

Luxury Bed & Breakfast

Set in a quiet, sunny location, on half an acre (2000 sq m) of private, established, forest gardens, eco-friendly McCormick House is minutes walk to local walking tracks, beaches, boat cruises, kayaking, hiking, sailing, fishing, popular cafes and restaurants, winery tours and dolphin swimming.

Close to Queen Charlotte Track and 15 minutes drive to golf course or Marlborough wine region. McCormick House is ideally located just 5 minutes drive from Interisland ferry, bus stops and train.

Your Kiwi hosts Jeanne and Carl, offer historic 5-star Picton accommodation with contemporary comfort and modern facilities, including separate guest lounge and dining areas.

Accommodation

Historic B&B with three unique designer bedrooms. Created with the expertise of a professional interior designer and furniture made by Carl, each room is individual.

- The Captain's Room has a raised clawfoot bath
- The Boatshed Room has a New Zealand Pacific theme incorporating blue lighting.
- The Palm Room has a private spa bath and a curved wall en-suite with multi-jet double shower.

All rooms have sumptuously comfortable beds with 100% pure Egyptian cotton linen.

Enjoy your leisurely gourmet breakfast feast, only the freshest seasonal ingredients are sourced, including local organic home grown produce picked from our garden, fresh eggs courtesy of the McCormick House hens, local salmon from Queen Charlotte Sound, fresh bread and Jeanne's home made muesli.
