

A 11 day New Zealand holiday. Your itinerary includes well-known places but also some magical less visited destinations in the North and South Island, beautiful landscapes, small boutique luxury accommodations some of the best things to do in the country. New Zealand is a small country but it has a multitude of lakes, big mountain ranges and a varied coastline and visitors need to allow time to discover it.

Activities include beaches, thermal areas, wine tasting, lakes and Milford Sound. Golfers will be able to add a round at all of these locations. Accommodations are all small boutique luxury lodges and bed and breakfasts where you can relax in comfort enjoying good design, lovely surroundings, a selection of good food and wine, and welcoming hosts.

Best time to travel on this trip? October - April. Peak summer months are January-March so book well in advance.
